NEBCO is an American Wholesale Insurance Group Company

■ ABOUT NEBCO

National Employee Benefit Companies (NEBCO), one of the leading third party administrators in America, partners with insurance agents and brokers nationwide to develop, market and administer innovative benefit programs for organizations of all sizes. Since its inception in 1991, NEBCO has grown to become the industry leader in Group Retiree Medical solutions. Through brokers and consultants, NEBCO's experienced team of skilled professionals assists clients of all sizes and industries in solving complex benefit challenges. NEBCO also assists companies with highly successful pre-age 65 Medical Programs and COBRA alternatives. NEBCO, headquartered in Warwick, Rhode Island, is a subsidiary of American Wholesale Insurance Group (AmWINS), the largest independently owned wholesale brokerage organization in the country.

THE RIGHT SOLUTION

Pharmacy costs continue to drive up healthcare fees. Time spent analyzing trends, monitoring drug prices and making pharmacy network decisions is a drain on your operations.

Now you can contain costs and better allocate resources with a Pharmacy Benefit Management (PBM) program from IdealScripts™.

IdealScripts' pharmacy management solutions help you control spending and provide innovative products and programs focused on full disclosure and superior care for your employees.

Created by National Employee Benefit Companies (NEBCO), IdealScripts is one of the most valued, trusted pharmacy benefit management programs in the industry. Our time-tested predictive modeling, built on extensive research and analysis, delivers the results your company needs to remain healthy.

EXPERIENCE MATTERS

In this era of PBM scrutiny and acquisitions, it's critical for businesses to align themselves with a strong, secure company.

IdealScripts was founded by NEBCO, a leading third-party group benefit administrator that's successfully managed programs for hundreds of employers, unions, associations, insurance companies and managed care organizations.

With more than a decade of experience, NEBCO is well-versed at designing full-scale benefit plans tailored to each client's particular circumstances.

Headquartered in Warwick, Rhode Island, NEBCO is a subsidiary of American Wholesale Insurance Group (AmWINS), the largest independently owned wholesale brokerage organization in the country.

PROVIDING TRUE VALUE

IdealScripts programs:

- Focus on the lowest net dollar amount for prescriptions while providing full disclosure and high-quality care
- Enable you to conserve resources by helping to eliminate your administrative burden
- Are not affiliated with any drug manufacturer or pharmacy chain
- Aggressively promote use of generic drugs
- Will not switch members to higher cost drugs
